REQUEST

Opposition to the processing of my personal data, taking into consideration that:

- The processing of my personal data is based on a mission of public interest or on the exercise of public powers conferred on the controller, and the processing thereof must be limited until I get a response from the exercise of this right.
- The processing of my personal data is based on the satisfaction of legitimate interests pursued by the data controller or a third party, and the processing thereof must be limited until a response is obtained from the exercise of this right.
- The processing of my personal data is being carried out for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

Without prejudice to the fact that it is up to the data controller to prove compelling legitimate reasons that prevail over my interests, rights and freedoms (in the first two cases), or a mission carried out in the public interest (in the third case), I accredit as a personal situation to oppose the processing of my personal data.

That my request be met in the terms set forth above within a period of one month.

It is recommended that you accompany this form with a letter in which you set out in detail all the information that will make it possible to identify the object of your claim.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Model A will be used when the affected party wishes to object to the processing of their personal data, for reasons related to their particular situation, in any of the following situations:
  - The processing of your personal data is being carried out on the basis of a mission of public interest or in the exercise of public powers conferred on the data controller.
  - The processing of my personal data is being carried out based on the satisfaction of legitimate interests pursued by the data controller or a third party.

In these first two cases, the mere exercise of the right to object entails the limitation of

  - The processing of my personal data is being carried out for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

Model B. will be used when the affected party wishes to object to the processing of their personal data for direct marketing purposes, including profiling.

2. The applicant must be sufficiently identified in the application, which must be signed. If the request is made by a third party, the representation granted for this purpose must be accredited in a timely manner. You should be aware that, where the controller has reasonable doubts as to the identity of the natural person making the request, he or she may request that additional information necessary to confirm his or her identity be provided.

3. The Spanish Data Protection Agency does not have your personal data and can only provide the contact details of the Data Protection Delegates of the entities obliged to designate one that have communicated their appointment to the Agency. You can also provide these contact details for those entities that have voluntarily designated a Delegate and have communicated it.

4. The owner of the personal data subject to processing must go directly to the public or private body, company or professional of which he presumes or has the certainty that he owns his data.

5. In order for the Spanish Agency for Data Protection to process your claim if your request to exercise the right of opposition has not been addressed, it is necessary that one month has passed without the person responsible having made the right effective, and provide any of the following documents:
  - the refusal of the data controller to oppose the requested data.
  - Copy stamped by the controller of the opposition request form.
  - Copy of the opposition application form stamped by the post office or copy of the receipt of the shipment by registered mail.
  - any other means of proof provided by the controller and from which receipt of the request can be deduced.
