INSTRUCTIONS

1. This model will be used in the event that inaccurate or incomplete data must be rectified by the controller.
2. To prove the inaccurate or incomplete nature of the data being processed, it is necessary to provide documentation that accredits it to the person responsible for the treatment.
3. The applicant must be sufficiently identified in the application, which must be signed. If the request is made by a third party, the representation granted for this purpose must be accredited in a timely manner. You should be aware that, where the controller has reasonable doubts as to the identity of the natural person making the request, he or she may request that additional information necessary to confirm his or her identity be provided.
4. The Spanish Data Protection Agency does not have your personal data and can only provide the contact details of the Data Protection Delegates of the entities obliged to designate one that have communicated their appointment to the Agency. You can also provide these contact details for those entities that have voluntarily designated a Delegate and have communicated it.
5. The owner of the personal data subject to processing must go directly to the public or private body, company or professional of which he presumes or has the certainty that he owns his data.
6. In order for the Spanish Agency for Data Protection to process your claim if your request to exercise the right of rectification has not been addressed, it is necessary that a month has passed without the person responsible having responded to your request, and provide any of the following documents:
 - The refusal of the data controller to rectify the requested data.
 - Copy stamped by the Data Controller of the rectification request form.
 - Copy of the request form for rectification stamped by the post office or copy of the receipt of the shipment by registered mail.
 - any other means of proof provided by the controller and from which receipt of the request can be inferred.
